CAST PAPER SCULPTURES

On display
until June 2

Eckman Fine Art

After 12 years in the advertising market of Los Angeles, Allen and Patty Eckman left their stressful careers to explore a whole new side of art: cast paper sculpture.

Inspired by his heritage, Allen's great-great-great-grandmother was a Cherokee named Tounacha Case.

"Taking the Bull with the Bow"

This link, coupled with Allen's fascination for Native American materials and history, nourishes his passion to sculpt.

Wildlife, birds, and flowers capture Patty's interest. "When I look at a flower, I don't just see color – I see form and grace." Patty's attention to nature joins beautifully with Allen's passion and results in exquisitely detailed sculptures.

Both of them remain deeply inspired by Native American culture and often work together on their larger, more complicated sculptures.

Future Exhibit

THOMAS D. MANGELSEN A LIFE IN THE WILD

On display from June 7 to September 8

A LIFE IN THE WILD showcases Thomas D. Mangelsen's signature, award-winning photographs of landscape and wildlife in all seven continents.

Every single image in Mangelsen's portfolio has been taken in the wild under natural conditions; the result of him waiting for the "picture perfect moment" across decades and often in hostile conditions. Such a body of work can only be achieved by having a heightened sense of animal behavior, an uncanny feel for being able to read changing atmospherics in the environment, and patience.

At a time when digital technology is, notoriously, reprogramming its users to have shorter attention spans, A LIFE IN THE WILD stands as a testament to the rewards that can come to people who slow down their lives and wait for nature's revelations to happen.
